

NOTICE OF BENEFIT DETERMINATION

Listed below is a copy of the wages you were paid during the base year by employers covered under the Maryland Unemployment Insurance Law and by the Federal Government.

This record of earnings is issued as an initial determination of your benefit rights which begin on the first day of the week in which you file your claim, and end 364 days thereafter.

"Findings with respect to whether you performed Federal service. The amount of your Federal wages. The period of your Federal service or reason for separation from any Federal agency as shown on this determination are made by the Federal agency. If you wish further information regarding any of these findings, or if you believe that any of these findings are incorrect. You may request the Federal agency to give you additional information to reconsider and correct any such findings. Your request with any data supporting it should be filed through your nearest local employment office now or on your next regular reporting day."

NOTICE

You are eligible to file a claim if your hours have been reduced and your earnings less your combined weekly benefit amount.
